What's Going on in California (Senate Bill 35)

- ◎ California Law (SB 35)

- Effective January 2013
- Codifies the NVRA into California law and adds new requirements
- Election Code sections 2400-2408
- Places requirements on County Elections Officials, NVRA agencies, and the Secretary of State (SOS) Office.

- ◎ Puts into place voter registration accountability

- You play a big role in this

Why Voter Registration Matters

- ◎ California has 6.8 million unregistered eligible voters
 - In 2014, California ranked 28th in the nation for voter registration
- ◎ People can't vote unless they are registered
 - In 2014, California ranked 43rd in the nation for voter participation
- ◎ Californians with disabilities and those who are low-income are more likely to be unregistered

Voter Registrations at NVRA Agencies

Thanks to the hard work of people like you, SB 35 is proving to help increase voter registration in California. Since 2013, voter registration at non-DMV voter registration agencies has increased dramatically.

NVRA Agencies: Tracking

◎ Tracking

- Puts into place voter registration accountability
- When the NVRA agency coordinators order VRCs from County Elections Offices, the serial numbers are tracked by the county
- The tracking of serial numbers is a vital step in the disbursement and tracking process.
- This ensures your agency is credited for complying with the NVRA when VRCs are returned by agency participants
- The tracking must be done by agency and by each of their offices and sites

NVRA Agencies: Tracking (Step-By-Step Instructions)

- ◎ Establish a relationship with your county's NVRA Coordinator
 - This person handles bulk VRC distribution to outside agencies and organizations and will ensure the serial numbers are recorded by the county
 - Confirm your agency's site is listed on the county's roster of NVRA agencies
 - Confirm that the county tracks voter registrations from each of your agency's offices and sites

NVRA Agencies: Tracking (Step-By-Step Instructions) (cont'd)

- ◎ Inventory existing supply of VRCs at each of your agency's sites
 - Inventory Sheet – Record the serial number ranges on each supply – e.g. English VRCs 37 EN 15000-15999; Spanish VRCs 37 SP 20000-20999; etc.
 - More than one site? Create a separate Inventory Sheet listing the serial numbers at each site
- ◎ Send your Inventory Sheet(s) to the county's NVRA Coordinator
 - County Elections Offices can be located on the SOS website at sos.ca.gov/elections/voting-resources/new-voters/county-election-offices

NVRA Agencies: Tracking (Step-By-Step Instructions) (cont'd)

- ◎ Need to order more VRCs?
 - Contact the county's NVRA Coordinator
 - Order new supplies of VRCs from the county's NVRA Coordinator as needed
 - You should always identify yourself as an NVRA agency when placing an order

NVRA Agencies: Accountability

◎ Accountability

- Counties report your agency's voter registration numbers to the SOS once a month
- Check SOS website for the NVRA monthly spreadsheet report to ensure your agency's sites and registration numbers are correctly listed
- The SOS NVRA monthly spreadsheet reports can be found at sos.ca.gov/elections/voter-registration/nvra/reports/sb35-nvra-monthly-reports/

Secretary of State NVRA Reports by County and Category

Under the National Voter Registration Act, every two years the Secretary of State compiles reports to the Election Assistance Commission (EAC) containing overall data for California. The reports are based on monthly county reports that counties submit to the Secretary of State's office and can be viewed below.

California Biennial Reports to the Election Assistance Commission

Under the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (NVRA), the Election Assistance Commission reports to the United States Congress on the NVRA's impact on voter registration. In order to prepare the report, the Commission requires the number of voter registration applications received and processed and where those applications were received (Motor Vehicle (DMV) offices, public assistance agencies, agencies providing services to people with disabilities, and armed forces agencies).

The California Secretary of State's office is responsible for responding to the EAC's survey by gathering this voter registration data from the 58 counties. In the past, county reports to the Secretary of State have sometimes been incomplete due to an inability to properly track the number of new voter registrations coming from agencies designated as voter registration agencies under the NVRA. Tracking has recently improved, because the Secretary of State and all counties now require NVRA voter registration agencies to order voter registration cards (VRCs) directly from the county where the local agency office is located. This allows counties to distribute sets of VRCs by serial number, so that as completed VRCs are returned, the county will know based on the VRC serial number from which state or federal agency the voter

Disability Etiquette

◎ Basic Guidelines

- Make reference to the person first, then the disability: Say “a person with a disability” rather than “a disabled person.”
- Do not use the term “handicapped” when referring to a person with a disability
- Offer assistance, but wait until your offer is accepted before you help
- Listen to any instructions the person may give

Disability Etiquette (cont'd)

◎ Common Courtesies

- Share the same social courtesies. If you shake hands with people you meet, offer your hand to everyone you meet, regardless of their disability.
- When offering assistance to a person with a visual impairment, allow that person to take your arm. Guide, rather than propel or lead the person. Use specific directions when directing a person with a visual impairment.

◎ Conversation

- Speak directly to the person with a disability, not to the person accompanying them. The same principle applies for people who communicate through sign language.
- When greeting a person with a severe loss of vision, always identify yourself and others. For example say, "On my right is John Smith."
- Speak in a normal tone of voice and indicate when the conversation is over. Let them know when you move from one place to another.
